Q And you have been summering here for the past--

A Fifteen years. I built this house a little over fifteen years ago.

Q One of the newspapers, the Times of September 3, 1926, quotes you as saying that on the night of the 14th you were fishing about twenty feet from Mr. Stevens, is that correct?

A. Well, no. I never--I am quite sure I never would scale myself down in number of feet with anybody because I could not say exactly. It was closer than that. Whether I was that close, I don't know, I would not use that.

Q What fixes in your mind your recollection of having seen Henry Stevens at about five o'clock on the morning of the 15th throwing nets for mullets.

A. Well, my guests desired to take a dip in the ocean early to make an early start home. I volunteered to put my bathing suit on early and get up around five o'clock to go on the beach, and I preceded them to the beach where I met Mr. Stevens, and I volunteered to help him catch mullet. We wanted to fish some more the next day or that day and mullet was the best bait for blue fish.

Q Do you remember introducing your relatives to Mr. Stevens that morning?

A. I never said that I introduced them.

Q No.

A. I pointed him out.
